IN BOSTON MARKET.

Receipts Light. Boston, April 19 .- The week opens in the local market for dairy products without much change from the condi tions of the latter part of last week Fine butter is in steady demand and firm, as the receipts include only a small proportion of goods of this grade, while storage holdings of fancy goods are well, reduced. The cheese market is dull and in buyers' favor, as supplies are large for this time of year and holders are anxious to reduce them. The consump tive demand for eggs is a little quieter than it has been, but receipts are comparatively light and with a good many eggs going into storage . the market well sold up and prices are firm.
